

Stacey Brandenburg becomes a ZwillGen Shareholder

WASHINGTON, D.C., November 16, 2015 – ZwillGen PLLC announced that Stacey Brandenburg has become a Shareholder.

“Stacey adds immeasurable value to our firm,” said Marc Zwillinger, ZwillGen’s Founder and Managing Member. “From a work perspective, the quality and thoroughness of her work are unparalleled. She has become a go-to attorney for many of our clients on important and sensitive legal matters. Internally, Stacey has demonstrated the type of thoughtful leadership that made her an obvious choice to join the Firm’s ownership team. We are very happy that she has become a Shareholder.”

Stacey counsels clients on privacy issues, regulatory investigations involving privacy, unfair and deceptive practices, advertising disclosures, and fantasy sports matters. As a former Federal Trade Commission lawyer in the Division of Privacy and Identity Protection, Stacey regularly helps clients respond to FTC investigations pertaining to Section 5 of the FTC Act, the FTC’s endorsement and testimonial guidelines, and the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Stacey also helps clients implement sound security and privacy practices and provides compliance training to employees.

“Being part of ZwillGen has been an incredible and rewarding experience,” said Stacey Brandenburg. “ZwillGen continues to press into uncharted territory tackling nuanced legal issues, and I am proud to be a part of the firm and share in its accomplishments.”

About ZwillGen

ZwillGen is a boutique law firm that has represented some of the biggest names in technology on a wide-range of Internet issues including privacy, cybercrime, information security, and fantasy sports. Since its founding, ZwillGen’s lawyers have been ranked and recognized in Chambers USA for their focus in Privacy and Data Security. ZwillGen’s clients are served by 15 attorneys and 3 full-time fellows across their Washington D.C., New York, San Francisco, and Chicago offices.